Ros is a GP in Swindon and mum to three small boys. She cares deeply about equitable access to healthcare and is currently working on an independent health inequalities project in association with The Harbour Project (a local charity supporting refugees and people seeking asylum in Swindon) and the BSW Primary Care Training Hub. As a previous Population Health Fellow she developed resources for Primary Care Staff in BSW promoting healthcare for vulnerable migrants. Her first love is Global health and she has worked in South Africa as part of her GP training, and previously Sri Lanka, Malawi and Lesvos.

The BGPert AGM: This year's AGM will be held for 15 minutes before the start of this session, all BGPert members are encouraged to attend. Agenda and papers to follow.
